

Humanistic Mathematics Network Journal #19

March 1999

From the Editor

The Classroom Encounter 1 Reuben Hersh Letter to The New York Times 8 Arthur B. Powell Miriam L. Yevick Book Reviews: Einstein, A Life, by Denis Brian, and The Silver Horse-shoe, by Javad Tarjemanov 9 Harald M. Ness "Numbers Man" 12 Lawrence Mark Lesser Spirograph® Math 13 Karin M. Deck The Difference Between Pure and Applied Mathematics 18 Adrian Riskin "Music of the Spheres" 19 Lawrence Mark Lesser The Prospects for Mathematics in a Multi-Media Civilization 20 Philip J. Davis	Mathematicians Can Be Wrong 29 Tony Dunlop Ken Kaminsky To My Students 30 Alvin White "Cantor's Coat" 32 Lawrence Mark Lesser A New Family of Irrational Numbers with Curious Properties 33 Vera W. de Spinadel The Möbius Metaphor 38 Julian Fleron Mathematical Fiction 39 Pat Mower Leibniz: His Philosophy and His Calculi 47 Eric Ditwiler Book Announcement: Women, Art and Geometry in Southern Africa, by Paulus Gerdes 52 In Future Issues...
---	---

The poems featured in this issue are by Lawrence Mark Lesser, Department of Mathematical Sciences, University of Northern Colorado